Sacagawea's Son
The Life of Jean Baptiste Charbonneau
by Marion Tinling

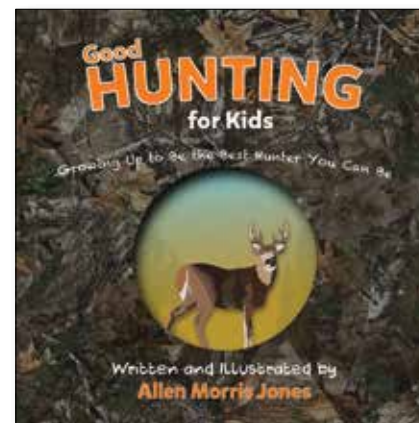

Sacagawea's Son: The Life of Jean Baptiste Charbonneau tells the action-packed, sometimes poignant story of a boy born to adventure. Baptiste's experiences with the Corps of Discovery were only the beginning. Educated in St. Louis by Captain Clark, he went on to live in a royal palace in Europe and to speak many languages. But, truly his parents' son, he returned to the American West, living out his life as a trapper, scout, and explorer alongside the likes of Kit Carson, James Bridger, and John Fremont. This lively and fascinating account will thrill readers ages ten and up.

Who Pooped in the Park? Series

Scat and Tracks for Kids

Michael, Emily, and their parents explore national parks and other sites in this popular series. Wildlife can be elusive, and both kids are disappointed when, at first, they don't encounter many animals. The kids quickly learn, however, that there are animals all around, and these creatures leave behind scat, tracks, and other signs. Colorful illustrations of animals and their scat and tracks, as well as a quick-reference chart, make field identification a breeze! For ages 5 to 10.

Henry Sieben and the Montana Story

by Ciara Ryan

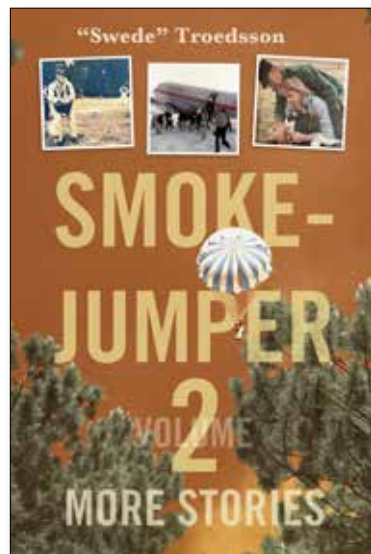

From the Montana History Foundation comes a biography of one of Montana's least known pioneers. Henry Sieben (1847–1937) came to Montana as a teenager and lived through many of Montana's pivotal historic moments. From his early days traveling west to Montana from Illinois to freighting, mining, and sheep and cattle ranching, he established an enduring legacy. This book covers the highs and lows of Sieben's life, culminating in the creation of two ranches, which are still owned and operated today by his descendants.

The Red Lodge Festival of Nations

A Memoir

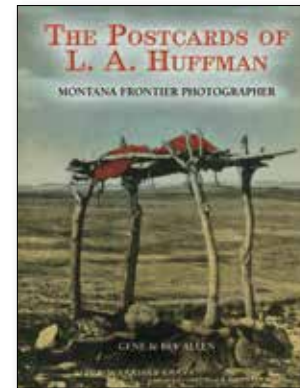

by Betsy Scanlin

In 1950, all of Red Lodge turned out for the dedication of the new Veterans Memorial Civic Center. The celebration showcased the town's remarkable mix of cultures, with music and dancing in highly-embroidered Old World costumes, flower-bedecked parade floats, and international flags lining Broadway and strung high in the civic center itself. The event was such a success, it inspired the annual Festival of Nations, which ran for nearly seventy years. Relive the pageantry and revel in the ethnic diversity that made Red Lodge such a unique place to grow up in, to visit, and to remember.

From Hard Youth to Hawaii Mule-skinner
by Daniel T. Miller

Irvin Atchison lived a hard life as a young man growing up around Sidney, Montana, in the difficult times of the 1920s and 1930s. He had a way with horses and a hardscrabble life. When he joined the U.S. Army, he had no idea that his skill would take him to the mountains of Hawaii to train mules in preparation for the coming war. Author Daniel T. Miller shares this little-known story of the military preparations for World War II in Hawaii as told by Atchison, a story of triumph over adversity with deep Montana roots.

Who Pooped in the Park? Series
Scat and Tracks for Kids

Michael, Emily, and their parents explore national parks and other sites in this popular series. Wildlife can be elusive, and both kids are disappointed when, at first, they don't encounter many animals. The kids quickly learn, however, that there are animals all around, and these creatures leave behind scat, tracks, and other signs. Colorful illustrations of animals and their scat and tracks, as well as a quick-reference chart, make field identification a breeze! For ages 5 to 10.

Colorado Women Homesteaders

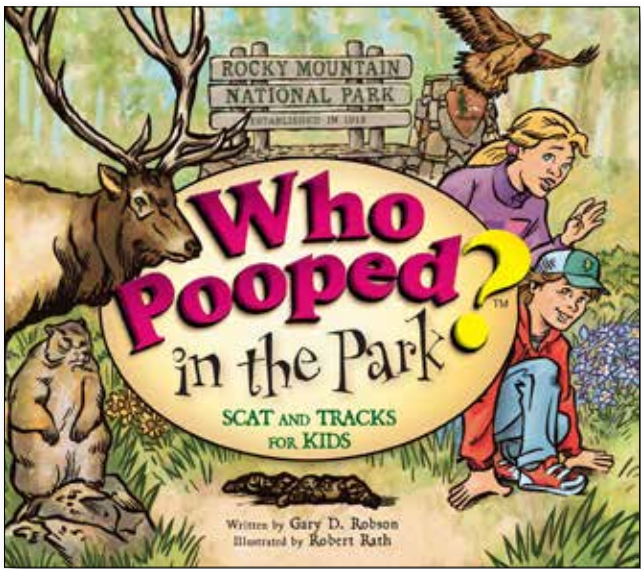

by Gail M. Beaton

During the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, more than 107,000 homesteaders "proved up" their claims in Colorado, raising crops and livestock on more than 22 million acres—one-third of the state's land area. Nearly 13,000 of these pioneers were women filing claims in their own names. Acclaimed historian and author Gail Beaton brings a curated selection of their narratives to life through diary entries, letters, meticulous research, and a gift for storytelling. Enduring fierce storms, drought, grasshopper swarms, wildfires, solitude, and more, these women persevered and helped create the Colorado we know today.

Land of Beginnings

The Archeology of Montana's First Peoples
by Douglas H. MacDonald

Through this meticulously researched book, MacDonald unravels the mysteries surrounding the earliest inhabitants of the region. He explores fundamental questions regarding when people first arrived in Montana, the routes they took, and where they originated. Land of Beginnings is not only a deep dive into the ancient history of Montana, but also a celebration of the collaborative efforts between archaeologists and Indigenous communities, adding a layer of cultural context that enriches the reader's understanding of the region's heritage. These partnerships have been crucial in uncovering and preserving the region's history.

Searching for Yellowstone Ecology and Wonder in the Last Wilderness
by Paul Schullery

In 1997 Yellowstone celebrated its 125th anniversary as a national park, the keystone in the federal system of reserved and protected places. The celebration was somewhat marred by debates over wolf reintroduction, road improvement, resort building, and "bioprospecting," the search for economically useful plant materials. Schullery, a longtime resident and student of the park, tells us that such debates are not new.

The Red Corner
The Rise and Fall of Communism in Northeastern Montana
by Verlaine Stoner McDonald

The Red Corner chronicles the meteoric rise and decline of communism on the prairies of northeastern Montana. McDonald offers insights into how this remote part of the West came to be home to one of the nation's most successful rural communist organizations and how it eventually rejected radicalism and reconstituted itself as a typical farming community.

The Bitter Roots

by Norman Macleod introduction by Joanna Pocock afterword by Gabrielle Graceffo

When fourteen-year-old Pauly takes a swim in the Clark Fork River one summer day, he doesn't expect to see a boy drown. Surrounded by everyday violence in his hometown of Missoula, Montana, Pauly is determined to prove himself, navigating the awkward fumbles of boyhood against a backdrop of strikes, gang fights, soldiers headed for war, and Prohibition. The Bitter Roots is a largely autobiographical novel full of evocative details of a time and place. It's a frank, unvarnished portrait of an America struggling with racism, class prejudice, conflicts between labor and capital, and sexual stereotype.

Glorious Times Adventures of the Craighead Naturalists
by Tom Benjey

Tells the fascinating and important story of an American clan of Scots-Irish that settled in the early 1700s in Pennsylvania. From this clan came an astonishing number of exceptional people, many of whom dedicated their lives to nature. It covers many generations, but appropriately focuses most attention on the famous siblings Frank Jr., John, and Jean (Craighead George).

THE JANE SHULL BEASLEY COLLECTION

Jane Shull Beasley's beautiful colored pencil drawings of birds and nature scenes are now available in collectible stickers and notecards.

The stickers are printed with fade-resistant inks on PVC-free vinyl. Use these lovely stickers to decorate planners, water bottles, laptops, and much more. They are approximately 3" high and are sold in packs of 10. Wholesale cost: $15 per pack ($1.50 per sticker). Stickers are available with the art from all notecards.

Notecards are 4.5" x 5.75" and are sold individually. The cards are blank inside and come with an envelope and in a protective sleeve. Wholesale cost: $2.50. Ask your Farcountry sales rep about custom name drops for stickers and notecards.

Beasley's book For the Love of Birds (page 4) and For the Love of Birds Perpetual Calendar (page 5) are also available.

BENCHMARK MAPS FOLDED RECREATION MAPS

Our Recreation Maps are a folded sheet map version of the Recreation Guides within the Atlases. One side provides a full state map featuring public lands, extensive highway detail, point-to-point mileages, recreation attractions, campgrounds, parks and wildlife areas. The reverse side includes city vicinity maps and categorized recreation listings with helpful descriptions, current contact information, and map grid references.
